Northwestern Ohio Regional News:

- Members, our web master, Larry Kurtz ask to have this sent out so here it is. Please reply by January 22nd if you have input for Larry.

NWOR WEBSITE

The NWOR Official Website, www.nworscca.com is long overdue for a tune-up. The software used to maintain the site reached the end of its life cycle last July.

The website belongs to all of the members and friends of NWOR, therefore, your input would greatly help the redesign of the new site.

What features of the old site did you like? What features didn't you like? What would you like to see in the new site?

Also, we need some language to tell prospective members what the NWOR is all about. What does it mean to be a NWOR member?

What is Solo all about?

Any and all submissions would be greatly appreciated, but we would prefer that you respond within a couple of weeks.

Please reply to webmaster@nworscca.com.
