

Special points of interest:

- Jon Ashley poops too much
- Ryan Finch is a Total Boss
- Ethan Murnahan has no soul
- Brian Sobb owes us a Sophomore Cup update

Alex Jones is the Man!

Alex displaying the t-shirt designed by Jon Ashley

'Murika!

Apparently that is the proper spelling of the United States of America when awesomeness is involved.

Alex Jones currently sits atop the Pro Index standings with one event remaining. Jeff Mabrey still has a shot at the season title if he can win at Fostoria.

In this issue:

Alex Jones 1

NWOR Rocks 1

Regional Officers 2

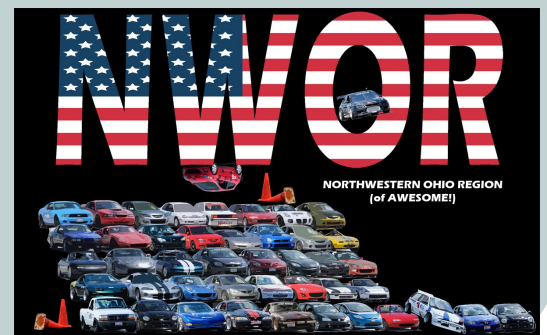

Novice Champ 2

NWOR Rocks!

According to the October 2012 issue of SportsCar, NWOR is the medium-sized region leader for growth at 11.9% and retention at 87%.

Per Bryan Rawlins, our region continues to do well into August of this year, with growth at 13.2% and retention holding strong at 84%.

Yay us!

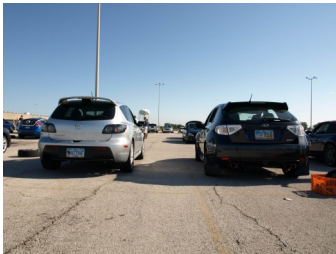

Chrysler Toledo Machining Plant
 Toledo Express Airport
 Autolite Fostoria
 ...and these are just a few of our favorite places

EAT, SLEEP, AUTO-X

Your Regional Officers:

- Bryan Rawlins - Regional Executive
- Kevin Lewis - Assistant Regional Executive
- Charina Hansen - Recording Secretary
- Elaine Christmas - Treasurer
- Open - Corresponding Secretary
- Bryan Rawlins - Douche Canoe Expeller Extraordinaire
- Robert Christmas - Director at Large
- Lee Franz - Director at Large
- Dax Bushmeyer - Solo Chair
- Bryan Rawlins - Solo Chair
- Phil Schmidt - Historian
- Gail Peery - Public Affairs
- Carmen Rowlands - Social Director
- Mike aka "fastbackss"- For Hire Gun

Two awesome cars.

Anthony Harrison is the 2012 Novice Champ!

Leaving little drama to end the 2012 Novice season, Anthony Harrison has wrapped up the title with one event remaining.

However, the race is tight for 2nd place, with Patrick Sampson and Chris Bolt to battle at Fostoria for bragging rights.

Not Anthony Harrison —————>
 (Just a friendly pic of our favorite waiver chief, Andrew Blasiman)

